

welcome to the difference makers community

Principles of Membership

Applicable to Online Forum, TorchBearer and Business Members

By creating a member profile and adding any content to this site you hereby agree to the following:

All content you add will reflect the spirit of the community

Your content will never contain anything of a pornographic nature

Your content will never contain anything that could be seen to be defamatory to another person or organisation

Should you have a complaint about the conduct of another member on this site you will only share that complaint with the member privately and only if you are unable to resolve by mutual agreement can you share your complaint with Ian Berry via private email

Rigorous, passionate, and forthright discussion is encouraged, however disrespectful, discouraging or comments of a put down nature are unacceptable

Ian Berry reserves the right to cancel anyone's membership. In the unlikely event of this occurring any membership fees paid will be refunded in full.

Yours sincerely
